

CENTRE FOR MIGRANT DOMESTIC WORKERS

Critical Intervention, Paralegal, Education, and Shelter Services

AT A GLANCE – 2016

CRITICAL INTERVENTION & ACCESS TO JUSTICE

- Rights-based Advice
- Rights-based Workshops
- Support in filing Claims
- Statement Writing
- Institutional Navigation & Liaison
- Courtroom & Tribunal Client Advocacy

SHELTER & PSYCHOSOCIAL SERVICES

- Temporary Safe House
(24 Bed Spaces)
- Emergency Food and Cash Support
- Women's Well-being Programmes
- Counselling-based Programmes
- Skills-based & Recreational Activities

2016 IN REVIEW

- 4,346 individual cases handled
(2,556 new)
- 8,498 consultations
- 3,484 actions taken to help clients
access justice
- Over 95% positive claim substantiation

2016 IN REVIEW

- Near 100% occupancy year round
- 211 women given shelter
For an average of 54 nights
- 284 psychosocial activities

EDUCATION & TRAINING

- English Classes (Cambridge Model)
- Computer Classes (Microsoft Model)
- Cantonese Classes
- Psychosocial Seminars
- Rights-based Seminars
- Health Seminars

2016 IN REVIEW

- 17 courses offered
- 173 students enrolled

WHO WE ARE

Established in 1993, Christian Action's Centre for Migrant Domestic Workers has provided comprehensive assistance to nearly 200,000 women and men who have been economically exploited, survived modern-day slavery, or have been unfairly treated or abused, by offering them critical intervention and paralegal assistance, shelter, food, psychological support, and empowerment through education opportunities, to build their capacities and move beyond the domestic work sector.